Present: Lora Carney, Juli Heard, John Hansen, Julie Goewey, Kelly Cox, Jill Ducsai, Bethany Powers, Amy Chase, Nancy Papp, Sally Cunningham, Heather Littlefield, Diane Decker-Booty, Angela Morton, Amy Morse

Welcome to all. Alex and Maddie Brackett are providing childcare.

Sixth Grade Class-letter requesting funds: The sixth grade class requested $2,045 in PTO funds for school-sponsored trips to Washington, D.C. and Merrowvista. Sally Cunningham proposed to provide the funds. Jill Ducsai seconded. The proposal passed.

Comments From John Hansen: The SCS students and staff watched the inauguration. It was a historic event that the children enjoyed. Thanks to Cindy Duchin and Justin Chapman for directing The American Revolution production. The upper multi-age class performed the play twice in Sandwich, and once at Interlakes elementary for the fifth grade classes. The Policy Review Committee meets every two weeks to review different school district policies. The Board is currently reviewing a policy impact statement regarding class size for grades K-12 in ILSD. The policy is open for public input. There are Policy Impact Forms available to fill out. Please contact John Hansen for more information. There will be a school district budget meeting on February 4.

Treasurer's Report: The balance is $8,048.16.

Box Tops for Education Information-Bethany Powers: Box top drop off sites are at the post office, town hall, and SCS. On BOXTOPS4education.com, there is a list of products and over 70 participating stores that will donate a % of the money spent to SCS.

Maple Syrup Proposal: Nancy Papp submitted a proposal asking for $120 to buy 4 gallons of maple syrup from local sugar shacks to replace the imitation syrup being served at SCS. John Hansen motioned to buy the syrup. Amy Morse seconded. The proposal passed.

Winter Carnival Bake Sale-February 7: Nancy Papp will send home a notice asking for help with baked goods, sandwiches, etc.

Sled Dog Races-Spaghetti Supper Fundraiser-Friday February 20th @ 5:30: Juli Hird, Angela Morton, and Jill Ducsai are chairing this event. Volunteers will be needed for this fundraiser.

Next meeting: February 11, 2009 6:30 p.m.
